UPAPADA

Anand: Why this native should fast on tuesday? We fast on day of Upapada Lord. When Upapada is in Virgo - we fast on sunrise to sunset. This is to pay debts which release us from papa which blocks smooth and pleasant life. This release starts from intimate relation (12h - source of upapada) and next all other things are clean - so fasting on these days is very auspicious even if person is not in relationship.

Debt can be paid by fasting and tapasya (Sa) or family and continuation of line (Ju). So see which graha has influence on Your upapada to check what the life has to offer for You. If only Sani influence Upapada and its connected to Arudhapada person is bachelor all life. If dharma of person is/was afflicted person has delay in marriage/kids and upapada-upaya is best in these kind of cases.

Aravinda: In that case all persons who have UL in the apricorn have villainous mother in laws?! I think there's more to this than just lordship.

Seventh bhava is dwara. It can be dwara to next life (like 7H from Lagna - if Mars You are born on Island), or it can be dwara to Your prestige (Arudha). Where the person(graaha) is standing on the dwara - he can help You (benefic with good diptadiavashta in 7 from AL) or he can block You (malefic there - see Rama chart). So if empty see the position and Yoga's of this Moon.

Swati: In accordance with UL: the planets in 7th or 12th would show the opposition from spouses family ? and for opposition from our family we see 7th and 12th to AL?

7H from AL can cause many good things..therefore we always look at Hari-Hara-Brahma Yoga seeing Lagnesh, Visnu (2H) and Ganesh (7H) from lagnapada..find that chapter in BPHS where Maharishi mentioned Ve-Ju Yoga in 7H from AL - read that chapter. 12 from AL is what we reject (if AL lord is involved) or what cause expenses (see natural karaka's).

Following Uttarakalamrta we should see eight house from kalatrabhava (seventh house) and Upapada for second vivaha.

Date: June 28, 1983

Time: 13:53:00

Time Zone: 2:00:00 (East of GMT)

Place: 19 E 05' 10", 50 N 19' 10"

D9:

2H in D9 is Leo. Eight from this is Venus in Pisces which shows Sadhu-mentality (Ve in 8H). Lord is Surya which shows spiritual person which travels a lot (ma/sa in forth).

Rasi:

Now 8 from UL is Jupiter in Scorpio which shows brahmana. So 2nd partner of this native is very spiritual, living like Sadhu, very knowledgable, principled and moral.

For more, please study my Sambandha paper in Articles.

Dear Rajrshi, Namaskar

Luckily this shows harmony between partner and spouse, this also shows that both can be spiritual, depending on more deep analysis of Navamsa.

There is also bad side to it. Seventh house ends up bringing, quite enormous opposition for this relationship and from Your description it seems like Guru-saapa (curse), which will give You bad direction and bitter relationship experience, especially related to that particular Upapada.

For this reason, it is advisable to mitigate the bad results following the remedy part of Jyotish.

Hi Rafal,

Your analysis seems quite accurate. There have been terrific oppositions to the relationship but otherwise it has been excellent.

I read an article by Visti which said how to use the principle of vara (days of the week) to find the remedy in case of a curse. Adding the numbers of the planets shani, jup, rahu (AK) and mars and subtracting them from 9 we get to 3. But Ju itself is stuck in the curse. In that case the lord of the house (leo) where the curse exists can it be propitiated for remedy?

Again for the remedy can we use the kalchakra/digchakra, taht is strengthening the planet directly opposite in the kalchakra which would be venus in case of sun, or strengthening sun itself as the direction of sun in both kalchakra and digchakra coincide?

Kindly resolve this query...

Dear Rajrshi, Namaskar

1. This vara-counting is for vara-yogas, not for curses. In this chart Surya is wellplaced so it will give relief due to Dakshinamoorti worship. Also Sri Krishna (me+mo) should be worshipped to alleviate Sarpa Yoga.

Lets do the counting for vara-scheme: shani(8), guru(3), rahu(4), mangal(9). Sum: 24. Reminder is 6 (2+4). $9-6=3$. Guru (3) is the upaya-graha, so this is serious case as Guru is contributing to yoga..

The solution lies in Surya.

Regarding Your chart, You have curse of Rahu in tenth bhava. So how to tackle this yoga? The best advise would be worshipping Nageshvara Jyotirlinga due to Atmakaraka involment. However Ive got impression that You are into Vaishnava tradition.. and if we review the situation carefully then we see that Surya (dispositor) is yuti Budha..that clearly indicates Vyasadeva or Dattatreya.

Dear Nishant

Complicated scenario. Ju gives neechabhanga to Me, so place of stay will control health and fame of native, this will be also very personal as Guru sits on Kanyaamsa. Afflicted by Shani can give some kind of issues with skin/overweight etc.

Rahu is strong in ninth so no big issue. It adds to spirituality being in 12H from AL. Person can have problems with drugs, too much depend on others and not decided on sexuality. Rahu also helps Shukra to get out from MKS being in 3 in Vara chakra. But definitely there is issue - some kind of unbalance when it comes to sexuality which can delay marriage and gives suffering. Fasting on Dwitya would be a remedy. Person can also worship Sri Narayana or Kali depending if its woman or man.

One query - Ketu is in 9H along with UL, you mentioned aspecting from 5H. I did not get it.

And how to judge if the relationship can end in marriage? As it is long-term involvement, I am taking UL for analysing it, am I right? If I look at 2H from UL, it is in Taurus with Jupiter (R). Lord Venus is in own sign Libra but with Rahu and Mars. Jupiter and Venus suggest marriage, but I am doubtful as J is R and Venus is with malefics.

I read some where in these posts that AL/UL in 1/7 axis native themselves can reject the marriage. Is the true?

Here are birth details:

Dear Satya, Nishant
Satya

1. Yes, Ketu aspecting 2H from AL will cut the lusty temptations.
2. If both Upapada lord and 2L from UL are wellplaced in D9 and UL is wellplaced from Lagnesh, AK and Venus then normally this turns up to marriage. Here Ma is involved in curse of Shukra so its hard to say it will be marriage from that Upapada unless some remedies will be done.
3. 7 from Arudha can be very good or very bad, depending if its malefic/afflicted or otherwise. Usually its very personal match where one depends on the other in lot of areas of life.

Here Ju being in 2H from Upapada shows children are very important to sustain the marriage as Guru is also PK and 5L. Still its very passionate relationship and issue of third party is of chance here. I would recommend fasting on every Tuesday.

Nishant

Classical sloka is that its parivartana in Navamsa makes one lesbian. Usually when Ve/Sa/Me are touching seventh bhava in D9 these things happen.

February 22nd, 2009 at 5:56 pm

Pranaam Rafal ji,

Thanks again, its much clear to me now.

You are right about being a very personal match. I am not sure if this can be the reason but we share same lagna (Leo same degree) and most of the planet placements along with same UL placements also which makes it in trine (UL2 for him as its 2nd relationship).

As for 3rd party, I am actually the third party as he is contemplating divorce for marrying me. I doubt it will happen looking at my chart - UL lord Mars is debilitated in Libra in both D1 and D9 (7H), 2L from UL is Venus which is in bad shape though in own house Libra in D1 and in 11H Aquarius in D9. Which I think suggests my first relationship will not end in marriage.

Even if I consider my UL2 for next relationship, it is Scorpio and again the placement of L2 Lord Mars is not too good in Libra. 2L from UL2 is Jupiter and it is Retrograde in D1 and in 12H in D9. Which again looks like a loss relationship.

My D1 7L Saturn is in 12H Cancer in parivartan with Capricorn Moon in 6H - that again points to unhappiness or loss in relationships, right? Overall, relationships look so pathetic in my chart.

Mars being UL lord fasting in Tuesday will help me or I need to do any other remedies?

I am very new to vedic astrology, if I am doing any mistakes in interpreting please forgive me. I am grateful for your explanations.

Dear Satya, Nishant

Satya

Usually when Guru aspects bahustree yoga then its high chance to turn this into marriage. But the affliction is still there which obstructs smooth partnership. Eventually this can lead to some kind of scandal due to Rahu placement on UL/AL Lord.

Mars is debilitated in Cancer, not Libra.

Are you sure about Navamsa Lagna? 7L is not in partivartana, only sixth lord. Its not bad yoga, can give relationship to foreigner or adds to secret relation.

Worst is Shukraa-saapa as you were born also on Navami and Friday. This should be corrected first by Jyorlinga sadhana of Shiva. Then purify Upapada by fasting. Gold ring also is good option.

Thanks so much for reply. My navamsa Lagna is Aries according to some and Taurus according to others. I am not sure which one is right for me.

I wanted to ask about scandal, I read Rahu involvement might lead to and of course my circumstances are also like that.

Do we not call it Parivartan if 6L+7L Saturn is in 12H and 12L Moon in 6H?

I was thinking being born on Durga-Navami and Friday during Navaratri as a boon. Is it a bad thing for me? Where can I find more about Jyotirlinga sadhana?

I am grateful to you for being so kind.

Rafal ji,

I understand the 2nd relation is to be seen from 2H - 8H from 7H and UL2 - 8H from UL but what if UL is in 2H? Which relationship or partner is it referring to?

When there is a parivartan involving the lord of either 7H or UL, how do we interpret

it? (Saturn in Aries in 9H and Mars in Capricorn in 6H)

I was looking at the chart to see if the second relation will lead to marriage. I am a confused here as both look to me similarly disposed and the significators are more or less same houses. As this is more for my learning, any help from you will be really great.

For Leo Lagna

1st relation:

7H - Aquarius with Rahu, 7L Saturn fall and retro in Aries (9H)

UL - Virgo (2H) with Jupiter in fall (5L)

UL lord - Merc in Libra along with Ve+Su

2H from UL - Libra with lord Venus (in own sign) along with Me+Su, aspected by Sa from 9H

AL - 5H, AL/UL is in kona 4/10 axis

D9 7H - Scorpio with Ketu (7L in own house?)

2nd relation:

2H - Virgo (2H) with Jupiter fall

UL2 - Aries (9H) with Saturn fall and retro, aspected by Mars from 6H

UL2 lord - Mars exalted in Cap (6H)

2H from UL2 - Taurus, lord Venus in own sign along with Me+Su, aspected by Ju from 2H

AL - 5H, AL/UL in trines 5/9 axis

D9 2H - Gemini with 7L in 10H, Aquarius

Thanks so much in advance

Dear Members

Satya

1. Only two houses can be involved in parivartan, never more.

2. If all panchanga paramaters are ruled by one planet then its important to be that planet strong right? There is good rule to follow: if vara and nakshatra are ruled by same tattva its good, opposite for vara+tithi.

Suman

Jupiter never cancel the Bahustree, it makes it expanded. Only Ketu (Ganesha) has that power.

If Upapada is in dusthana from AL then the formation of relation may be not smooth, second step which always is forgotten by most of Jyotishas is to compare the lords of both arudhas. Maintenance of relationship is always seen by 2nd house from particular Upapada.

Upapada must be in MKS or bad Pachakadi Sambandha from AK to cause problems. Also Upapada in 4,6 from Shukra doesnt work. Refer to my post about Marana Karaka sthana, its quite important from the perspective of Atma.

Satya

Count always 8H from 7H (d9) and from Upapada for next relationship. If 12L is in Lagna then Upapada falls in 2H - its still the first Upapada, then 9H will be the place of 2nd Upapada - if there is yoga for the breakage of the first one.

Parivartana shows change, transformation, sudden reversals, unexpected event. If its connected to UL then see how the energy change, the energy can define the morals, direction, outlook or even the appearance.

37. Rafal Gendarz Says:

Dear Sumam

Bahustree yoga on UL gives sexappeal, in 2H from UL can give immoral partner. If lagnesh is in Upapada then if its benefic then one is under domination of partner, opposite for malefic. Lagnesh involvment shows direct influence on emotions and choices of native. So if native is cheated then its very internal experience which can change the direction of life.

Bahustree yoga is Ve+Ma in 2H from Navamsa Lagna or Arudha Lagna. If this yoga is in Upapada then as I said it can add to sexappeal and libido of partner but there is more to analyze there.

In one book I have read that if these are in own sign then this can be reduced to one partner, if enemy then outside, and debilitated shows very low ideal.

Rafal ji,

Thanks so much for the replies.

You said if there is yoga for the first one to break, UL2 is considered as 8H from UL. So if the person is not yet divorced, I should not look at UL2 to judge the state of our relationship?

If UL is 12H from Venus and 2H from AK, does that mean it leads to problems? I am intrigued by the number of factors to be considered for a smooth relationship. Either UL or 2H from UL is bound to fall in dusthaana from AL in most of the cases. Does that mean all relationships either start or end in problems? Looks mighty complicated.

This is off topic but after posting here, I read an article on parivartan by Visti ji, yet to digest and apply to my chart. I have parivartan involving AK and Lagnesh - Leo lagna, Sun in 2H and Merc (AK) in 1H. Does that mean a change of personal values/ideals and priorities in life?

I have another basic question- the timing of the relationship for each UL is from the 7th house, 2nd house, etc in navamsa as i read in your article, but sometimes a relationship takes years to manifest into marriage—so the relationship may start in one bhukthi and marriage in the next—how do we differentiate the timing of the two?
