Tarun: Could you please explain the role of dispositor in a chart? There are few kinds of dispositors. That important tool is especially used in Tulya (mixing rasi with Varga) concept and Dasas (especially in Udu). For nodes this tools matters more than for other grahas/arudhas as they are chaya grahas and take energy from other grahas (like Durga takes weapons). Its also important for Upagrahas. Important dispositors have their own names, Moon dispositor is called Subhapati, while Surya Dispositor is called Aditya. Nakshatra dispositor (Jeeva) shows sustenance source and focus of mind. Arudha dispositor always shows level of influence/resource and defines the arudha (especially if arudha is empty).

For shortcut we can say that dispositor generally shows resources and creation. If it is connected to yoga then it indicate third person (need of connection/activation through additional person).

Thank you rafalji.

But the above terminology seems to be a bit difficult to understand. Is there any simple way to understand use of dispositor in interpreting the chart.

Dear Tarun,

Hopefully these points will add something more:

1. Dispositor of Lagnesh is connected to health of native, in the same way dispositor of 4L can show health of our mother.

2. Dispositor of Moon is connected to our sukha and satisfaction, of Surya - to resources and Raja Yoga.

3. Dispositor of Yoga is important to that Yoga to manifest, and it will show what must be done to start.

There are also few more..

I'm able to understand a bit now. what is the original name term used in vedic astrology for a dispositor. may be that might add some more to my understanding. Thanks a lot, rafalji.

4. tarun Says:

So, if i understand this correctly, does this mean that if the dispositor of say lagna is placed in a friendly sign it will contribute to good health and if with inimical sign it will not be good for the health?

- Does the transit also effect/modify the final result to very high degree?

Thank you.

Dear Tarun, Namaskar

#1 Specific dispositors have special names, so for example for Lagnesh it is Pakesh. Navamsa Dispositor we call Amsesh (Amsa Isha - lord of division).

#2 Pakesh (dispositor of Lagnesh) shows health of body, while Nakshatra Lord of Lagnesh shows psychological health. So avastha, yoga and house-placement are necessary to judge condition of body and mind. I was taught that Gochara doesnt depend on lordship based on natal chart.

7. Rafal Gendarz Says:

September 19th, 2007 at 11:01 am

Dear Hitesh,

Ive didnt see any good book on this mattter yet. Gochara depends a lot on Arudhapada in results we usually want to see and judge. You can start with any classic and then there are books like Deva Keralam which adds Tulya Gochar a (mixing Rasi with Varga). At first step we see Guru (Guru is good in kendra to Arudhapada in Gochar), Shani (Shani is good in Upachaya from Arudhapada in Gochara), Rahu, Ketu (if in kona to AL gives Mukti-marga period) gochara. Then to be more accurate we see Surya and Chandra. For example if Rahu or Surya are in kona to AL one rises in life.

Respected Gurujji,

Namaskar.

I have a basic and probably dumb question, which has always troubled me, when we look at gochara do we look at AL(gochara) or the Natal AL and similarly the other placements like lagna for eg. My lagna is mithuna, do we look at mithuna as lagna in the transit chart or the asc of the transit chart when we analyse.

Sisya,

Nalini

Dear Nalini, Namaskar

We look at natal AL and judge planets in gochar from natal-AL-sign. For example my AL is in Virgo in natal chart, so Shani in dusthana Simha - Twelfth bhava in gochar from natal-AL is auspicious in effects.

In the same way I can judge others: Ju is in third, Rahu is in sixth (auspicious), Ketu in twelfth, Surya in AL (very auspicious), Moon in ninth (auspicious).

You can also refer gochar of planets to other Arudhas. Ive seen lady's chart with Upapada in Simha and when Shani came to Simha relationship broke down (this happens when 2H from Upapada is weak).

Hope I made it clear.

Respected Guruji,
Namaskar.

Thank you for making it very clear.

So when taking into effect from Lagna too we take the natal lagna, is that right?

Also while reckoning with Vimsottari, we look at Mahadasa from Surya, Antar from Chandra and Pratyantar from Lagna, is that right?

I am still not very comfortable with Narayana Dasa, specially when the 7th house is stronger, . I guess I shall come back with questions after I have studied your write up .

Kind Regards

Nalini

11. Rafal Gendarz Says:

Dear Nalini, Namaskar

i) Yes, we take Natal Lagna - but this will tell more about health/intelligence. We take Sade Sati & Kantak Shani from L, AL and Chandra.

ii) Mahadasa from Surya & AK, Antardasa from Moon & AL, Pratyantardasa from Lagna. But with ALL three levels we can see Yogas from Lagna.

iii) With Your strong Jupiter in 7H, You should definitely study Narayana Dasa. I hope You will start soon. Mahadasa reckoning when 7H is stronger is very easy - just in interpretation of Dasa-rasi-phala You take the 7H from current Mahadasa. Like in Your case ND started from 7H, so Your current Cancer Dasa should be seen from Capricorn (7H from) - thats all.

I was listening to the lectures of Guru Visti larsen about the gem stones in which he has specified that yellow sapphire should be worn in the ring finger and not in the index finger. But I have seen many people wearing the stone in the index finger.

Could you explain the reasons as to why the same should not be worn in the index finger.

I was wearing the stone in the index finger and now after the lecture of Guru Visti larsen I started wearing the same in the ring finger.

What would be the effect of this change?????

Dear Uma, Namaskar

Your modification (from index to ring) will change the direction of energy.

There are many divisions which we use for determining proper finger for particular gemstone. There are default fingers for stones, and also chart can modify this. Yellow Sapphire has the power of Jupiter and Ring finger belongs to Dharma Kona. Embodiment of Dharma, Morality and Principles finds the best place in dharma place, therefore ring finger. Usually Jupiter also is enforcing direction in life, or obstructs bad advices with His clear vision (ex. yellow sapphire for rahu/ketu in ninth).

1. Argala means bold and it shows how every house is influencing other areas. Every move and even placement like Vastu has its own consequences which are deciphered by astrologer. If I see that world is battleground (ma in ninth) then surely it will have influence over my relationship (parakrama argala) right? Forth bhava shows consequences of upbringing on our character. Argala on Lagna shows identification with Yogas.

2. Rasi drsti is like seeing someone through window, its jnana shakti. Graha drsti cares emotion and acts in Dasa, while Rasi drsti works always. So whenever suffering/hapiness is involved grahadrsti is seen, while for strength, protection and qualities we use Rasi Drsti.

For curses we use only graha drsti.

3rd house from lagna is being occupied by Mars
4th house is being occupied by Moon
5th house is being occupied by Saturn
6th house is being occupied by Venus
7th house is being occupied by Sun

Is this combination a graha malika yoga and if so what does it mean

10th house from the lagna is occupied by Venus

Dear Uma, Namaskar

So shukra definitely can give money as its debilitated and in 11 from AL in Rasi. From D10 eight bhava occupied by Lagnesh shows that You like short projects. Simhasana in Lagna (d1) gives influential position as 10L dispositor is with AmK also. You are very industrious but You will not use this tactic as eleventh bhava is stronger and instead you prefer working on skills/training. But...are You sure Your D10 Lagna is right? Shani in sixth would make You working with some old things/or work physically, Mangal aspect shows engineering, while of Ketu computers. Ketu is in second bhava which can show more stable job. With this Sun in Lagna boss should have direct impact on You in work, can be dominating and very responsible and principled, this will be also Your trait according to Dhanus Lagna. Ra as BK in ninth make You spiritual, but that will be little bit unstable. However You are very attached to having stable financial situation. Yellow Sapphire is good idea.

Yes my Lagna as per D-10 chart is in Dhanus with Sun as a lord. My understanding is with the Sun with Dhanus rasi I would rather think of not working for others but for myself. I would like to be the boss of my own.

Yes I am responsible and very principled

In my earlier question I have asked for a question how to check if a person is contemplating of changing his job. You replied to the question with the following answer:

“When planets get Vakri see Navamsa sign of this planet, then see this sign in D1 and You will know the result. I believe it will become Vakri (retrograde) in May 2008.

Around Nov 22 07 it will go to Dhanus, so judge this position from Moon and AL.”

As per the transit calculations my AL is in Meena rasi. If I count 10th house from AL then it will Jupiter with Dhanus rasi. Does it mean that I would changing the job during the dasa of jupiter. And again counting the same no of house from Jupiter the 10th house would be venus. If this is the case then how to know when there would be change in the job

30. Rafal Gendarz Says:

hare rama krsna

Dear Uma, Namaskar

1. Person is thinking about changing job, when 10L from Moon gets activated in D1, or its Navamsa Dispositor. This can also give new job as well. To be more accurate normally eight house/lord is involved in D10 for this.

Narayana Dasa in Kendra to Lagna gives changing of attitude, while in Kendra to Sun new beginning, which consequently implicate change.

2. This Navamsa-tulya (seeing navamsa sign in D1) technique was for Vakri movement, while You are talking about changing a sign. You have AL in Aries, so trikona from AL is not auspicious, while Kendra is (like in Scorpio). Jupiter in fifth from Lagna gives good remembrance, reciting of mantras, religious mind etc.

3. Person gets new job while 5H gets activated.

See this example:

Date: June 24, 1983
 Time: 18:50:27
 Time Zone: 2:00:00 (East of GMT)
 Place: 19 E 03' 10", 50 N 17' 10"

He got new job in Shukra-Buddha-Guru. Shukra is in Dasamsa Lagna, Buddha is tenth lord from Moon in D1 and Navamsa Lord of Jupiter - Fifth lord in Rasi. Guru is fifth lord in D10. Shukra and Shani are aspecting sixth bhava, so its renovation (Shani) of Art (Venus). The same planets influence 11 from Arudhapada. It was Cn-Sg. Sg is sixth from Cancer, and is occupied by Lagnesh (new beginning), aspected by fifth bhava.

Dear Aishwarya, Namaskar

1. Pravrajya Yoga with Buddha strongest and in twelfth bhava gives obsessions/passion with money/career and opposite sex. As Buddha is Atmakaraka the mantra is : Om Namoh Bhagavate Sarwalingaya. Buddha is Vargottama and strong which will give communication and speaking skills, along with sharp intelligence (5L yuti). This can be utilized in spiritual ways as its strong in 3 from AL and AK.

2. Ke and Ra/Ma are in kendra bhavas which shows sarpa yoga, intense passions - this is luckily broken by Malavya Yoga in Lagna. As A11 is yuti, friends also will help You in life. Chandra/Shukra influencing 11 from AL shows arts/cosmetics /publication/social dealings. Details depends on rectified chart (d10).

3. Mangal debilitated in tenth can give wealth, but will decrease skills, enthusiasm and status as AL is yuti, this is important in terms of Raja Yoga as You were born in Mrigasira Nakshatra.

4. Malavya Yoga grants comforts, luxuries in life, this can however be gained abroad or after pilgrimage, as Shukra is in Aquarius Amsa with Rahu in 10H & Shani in twelfth.

5. 4L in twelfth bhava and Ketu in fourth shows lack of happiness from father side.

You should also fast on every wednesday and be interested in Malakarjuna Jyotirlinga. You can also wear grey clothes and avoid pink and blue clothes.

It is definitely chart with potential.

Dear Priya, Namaskar

Dhyana bhava: Twelfth house; Karaka: Ketu.

We should look both at D1 and D20 (Upasanaamsa Varga).

It also depends what obstacles You meet in meditation, it can be lack of focus, problem with visualization, nerves/vata disorder, lack of faith, lack of steadiness, lack of proper motive or inspiration etc. Manovaha stotras (ayurveda) or Chitta Nadi (yoga) should be clean and stable for meditation. The movement of prana is always related to movement of mind, therefore pranayama is important tool. Flow of chitta nadi is based on desires and it flows outwards when desires are uncontrolled, especially sexual desire is big obstacle for inward flow of chittanadi (to heart).

In Your chart rudra yoga which gives tensions/high blood pressure is in kendra aspecting Lagna and having parivartana with lagnesh, this gives problem with satva guna. Also AL and AK are in bandhana yoga with malefic planets which gives lack of comfort, relax, free time/opportunities. Shani and Rahu are aspecting this Dwiguruyoga in Mantrabhava (with Ke /karaka/ in badhak from it). This should be remedied with Vishnu Gayatri which definitely would help in Your meditation.

Now for details we should rectify D20 as this will show us all details related to spiritual practice. For problem with visualization (dharana/dhyana) tenth bhava/lord should be afflicted. Meditation should be analyzed from twelfth bhava in Vimsamsa. In your chart, if we set Kanya Lagna we have Shani and 6L (both shows shadripus) in vyayabhava which shows weakness of heart and determination due to ripus (kama, krodha, lobha, moha, mada, matsarya).

I think the best part about jyotish is that i can increase my self awareness for it is not only others who perceive us through the clouds of "maya" but it looks like i myself have been looking at myself through a very confused mind. That is my main problem in meditation...a restless mind! I will definitely pray more for this (can't do Vishnu Gayatri - i'm Catholic). I will also make time for pranayama.

Dear PJ Shri, Karun, Namaskar

PJ Shri

11 from AL is seventh bhava, AL with A7 forms Srimanth Yoga, lord is in Lagna with 7L as Yogada. This gives possibility of buisness. This can be also related to family or hotel buisness/food. If Navamsa is in Cancer then its very bad for finances, and Kali worship should be initiated. In D10 we see seventh bhava stronger with Buddha which shows some educational buisness, as Jupiter is aspecting from Lagna it could be also related to finances. This of course can change if the birthtime is inaccurate. Mrtyunjaya should be recited for Surya in Sankranti.

Karun

Vakri graha is three times stronger. It gets activated in stationary/direct movement in its dasa. You can deduct degrees of Sun and Vakri planet, the difference should be seen in yrs ie. 5 degrees - 5 years.

Dear PJ Shri, Namaskar

Without previous job history its hard to know the Lagna of D10 to say something serious. Per Sc Lagna Aug of 2008 is fruitful. Before that is chance in April 2008. From 17 Dec there will come better days as Surya will move to Dhanus.

Guru dasa will be much better period.

Dear Rafal -ji, Namaskar again.

I also would like to know more about the vakri planet explanation you have given. For what purpose did you advice to find the difference(in degrees) between vakri planet and the sun and convert it to years. What is this supposed to relate to? Do vakri planets show their strength during their antaradasas as well?

I have retrograde Venus in 5th(Libra) & retrograde Saturn in 11th(Aries). What do these 2 vakri planets indicate?

Thank you Rafal-ji, for taking time to attend to our ignorance.

Dear Priya, Namaskar

To understand this issue we must rise above mundane definition of Astrologer.

1. Among Vedangas, Chandas are represented by feet, Vyakarana face, Kalpa hands, Jyotisha eyes, Shiksha nose and Nirukta ears. Now Hari Hara in Prasna Marga says, that eyes represents most important organ as it gives us vision. This vision is signified by Surya - karaka for Daivajna. Surya represents knowledge or rather enlightenment, Moon compassion and Brhaspati gives harmony between these two. Agni (adi devata of Surya) is responsible for digesting and transformation of jnana into vijnana (realization). Jyotish is not meant for predicting marriage, issues and financial prosperity, it is meant for final goal which is atmajana, therefore those who can work on that highest level of jyotish (d45 to d60 vargas - supraconsciousness) are not only mundane astrologers but real Trikalajna's (knowers of past, present and future). This is the highest definition of Jyotisha where the light of Surya is not restricted to mundane matters of family, material protection and satisfaction in work - but it touches the real Truth (sat) where one discovers its eternal nature beyond forces of material situations and emotions. When Sastra talks about Jyotisha then that's the definition. I've got a mail lately in which appeared that sentence: "after all, getting out of this material world entirely is more important to me than studying people's lives and karma". This kind of restricting Jyotish is very similar to restricting Yoga only to Asanas (physical excersises) or to restrict Dhyana (meditation) to feeling relaxed after work. If people form those sentences, it means they dont know nothing about Veda and Vedanga, be it related to Ayurveda, Yoga or Jyotish. Therefore there is very responsible and noble task, to show the world how the real Jyotish and Yoga look like. Otherwise everything will be shallow and the real light of Surya will never bless with all the spiritual riches.

2. Moksha karaka is Ketu. You can see argala on Ketu (in reverse) to see what is helping You in spirituality. If there is planet in fifth from Ketu then it means that going to church and following rules is more important. When there is planet in ninth from Ketu (fifth in reverse) then it means that personal emotion towards God is more helpful.

Dear Priya, Namaskar

1. Degrees will shows when the vakri planet will give results, as it tends to deny/delay it initially. You can also see the same with Kalasarpa/Kalamrta Yogas by seeing the difference in degrees. Planets Vakri are like Atmakarakas, very independent, full of light but in its owns colours. So Shani Vakri will be like next blue Sun, Mangal vakri, next red Sun etc. Sometimes their graha drsti we interpret like Rasi drsti due to power of glance.

2. Vakri grahas in fifth bhava can show abnormality related to mind or children. So it can give adoption, or very independent/unconventional ideas.

I just love your explanations.

I agree that you have a "very responsible and noble task, to show the world how the real Jyotish and Yoga looks like." I wish i was in a position to help.

I am especially very fascinated with charakarakas which i just happen to stumble upon early last month. The importance given to Atmakaraka is what triggered my intrest in jyotish. I hope you will find the time to write on that topic someday soon.

Can i know if you can judge transits from the AK? If so how?

Dear Priya, Uma Namaskar

Priya

If Sy or Mo sits in Karaka Lagna in Gochar (AK Rasi i D1) then its good time to make important decisions in life. In Gochar we should look first at Shani, Guru, Rahu and Ketu. Judging these four from AL gives very good results and this technique I like the best. For more accurate readings use Surya and Moon in kona to Arudhas. You can use also Sahams, Tulya Technique.

Uma

Ra is in badhaksthana and in Karka D9 can give urinary (water) problems. 6L in 8H can also give urinary disease (ref COVA 464).

Its Mo-Mo period which has argala on 8 from L,AL,AK (virodha). Moon is also in forth from Navamsa Lagna.

From January 2008 it will be better time as Sg-Ad in Shoola dasa will come. Jupiter in twelfth can give some hospitalization so getting out of disease. Scorpio was problematic due to placement of A8 and being in 12H from MD. Big improvement will come after 2012 July as till then Sg (kona to AL) is working.

Remedy lies in Mrtyunjaya Mantra, Spiritual dancing (Kirtan) for 7L in badhaksthana and Brghu mantra: Om Bhargavaaya Namah (3 malas daily from Friday).

Dear Gr, Namaskar

1. Lagnesh in badhak and in 3 from AL will cause troubles due to Your plans/machinations. This trouble was between 1997 and 2003. This surely is not good for spiritual advancement. Surya Atmakaraka in Lagna gives god fearing person and morality is ensured due to Gajakesari Yoga with Guru in ninth. However sometimes due to Ketu in fifth You make some bad plans/mistakes and this make You stucked in life. This is with relation to partners/spouse (a7), boss and spirituality (a9) and money/family (a2). Your spiritual period comes from 2008 Feb to 2020 (esp from 2015) where benefics are sitting in 3/6 from Dasa Rasi. I think You could think more spiritually from half of 97'.

2. In 2008 Guru will be in Dhanus-Gochar which will be quite good, better than 2007. Still from April2007 to April2009 You can be trapped in Your own machinations. For finances it will be good period, as its dhanayoga. For more I should rectify D10. Worst period should be from 1997 to 2003. Ketu in fifth bhava shows problems in career and private life (12 from Mo). I advise You to recite Ganesha and Bhrgu Mantra daily. You should also make donation to Lord Narayana and Narasimha/Rudra/Hanuman is Your Ishta Deva.

Use Shastihayania or Utpanna-Vimshottari for Your chart.

Dear Rafal-ji, Namaskar.

i have a question on judging the strength between my lagna and 7th bhava so as to ascertain the starting point of Narayana Dasha. Both lagna and 7th bhava are dual signs with no planets & no rashi drishti from Guru, Budha or Own lord.Both are lords of odd signs in odd signs.

7th lord Jupiter is AmK and lagna lord is only PiK. But Mercury has more dasa years (Vimshottari dasa years). Which is stronger in this case - Lagna or 7th? By the way lagna has graha drishti from Jupiter but i'm guessing this is not relevant.

Dear Satheesh, Namaskar

I will use prashna principles here:

1) the first question we should see from Lagna. Seventh house from Navamsa Lagna is stronger housing Shukra+Buddha therefore there is answer in the prashna chakra.

Lagna is sthirarasi, so there is no big change in this year. Arudhapada is in forth bhava with Rahu so the question relates to foreign issues. Native always wanted to go abroad as Lagnesh in Navamsa is with Rahu and in eighth bhava. In the rasi Lagnesh is also in eighth bhava, Rahu aspects 12H with Chandra and both Lagna and Paka rasi have a lot of bindus in Ashtakavarga. So yes.

Second question should be read from Moon. Arudhapada from Moon sits in Vrcsika Rasi - spiritual sign. There is Ke+Sa yoga which is pitrdosha - this cause lot of misunderstanding and dogmatism. As this is seventh bhava (Ganesha) native in this year will master some spiritual skills (simhasana yoga) and will broaden the way of thinking about spirituality. Mantra and Guru lords are in vyayabhava which shows meditation as quite important practice for you. You were stucked in life for long time and have financial problems (ke/sa in prashna navamsa) and that issues will now give problems in your career (tenth bhava prashnarasi) and support (10L from Moon).

Worship Shiva to feel the relief in those issues, worship Guru to avoid spiritual misconceptions and rejection of Guru (om gurubhyo namah) and Sri Ganesha is your ishtadevata. 2011-2018 will be quite spiritual seven years for you.

March 10th, 2008 at 3:40 pm

Dear Rafal

Thanks a lot for the analysis in detail.

Just to let you know, I am working as a software professional, and though i am doing good being here in india, somehow its like i have done well whenever i was out of the country, and i didn't have that much good time here that way...

Also it has not been good careerwise for the past 2 years or so (personally it was ok, as i stay close to my parents & sister), due to which i wish to go abroad now for work.

Basically i have a query on this. I wish to work for a period of 2 years abroad, and then want to take up some easier kind of work / self work so that i can give more time for my sadhana.

1. Now, i have read that in D-10 chart if 6th house is strong it will indicate service & 7th house denotes self work. I think in D-10, i have ketu in 6th (dhanus) and moon in 7th house, so if ketu is stronger, then does it mean that self work kind of thing will not work out for me?

2. I also came across articles about Dasamsa chart for many saints, wherein their spirituality is ascertained based on ketu, planets in makara rasi etc. Would like to know what kind of information we get from this divisional chart since we have D-20 and D-9 charts to look for spirituality? Is it a kind of spiritual work since this is career chart?

3. Its mentioned that 12th house from karakamsa in navamsa if it has benefic association (i am not sure about rasi drishti in this case and also whether planets like saturn is considered a benefic), it will lead to emancipation. Now, i think many people in the world may have this kind of combination though they may not be spiritual at all. If so, then based on what parameters the combinations for moksha / spiritual ripeness will be decided in addition to this?

81. Satheesh Says:

March 10th, 2008 at 4:13 pm

Dear Rafal

Just to add to my earlier query.

1. Though i tried a lot for a job change here in India itself (i can get an offer but not to my interest), it does not seem to happen, and so far my efforts for going abroad have been smooth.

That way, is there any thing in a person's chart wherein his career life will be better abroad compared to his home place?

2. Regarding my query on karakamsa & spirituality, i have read about a rule which states that ketu in 12th house in rasi chart grants moksha.

We know of many people who have this placement but they do lead a normal life (to the extent that's visible externally) and have found this rule to be indicative of some interest or, indicating someone who lives in a ashram kind of place. Likewise, many saints do have a placement of ketu elsewhere and not in 12th house in rasi chart.

Again in the navamsa chart of many saints / sages we find that either they dont have ketu in 12th house or ketu in 12th aspected by saturn and not by benefics like jupiter or venus.

So, if this is the case, having ketu with benefics in 12th house to karakamsa could still make someone spiritual and not lead necessarily to moksha is it not?

If yes, then what possibly might be the other rules/placements that will determine this?

Love, Satheesh

Dear Satheesh, Namaskar

1. Basically yes, if the sixth is stronger then the forces of circumstances are more strong for the dependent job. But see also Lagnesh and Rasi-10L. Be holistic. People with lagnesh in ninth in d1/d10 hate job-work. I have Lagnesh with ninth lord in fifth in D10.

2. Yes, refer to Crux of Vedic astrology of Sanjay Rath. D10 also shows mission of sect-leaders. Moksha trikona is usually somehow influenced by D1-10L. There should be also some spiritual yogas influencing lagna or lagnesh. Maybe also AmK. For inner spiritual core see Vimshamsa and navamsa.

3. To be sure about moksha only punya and prashna charts are reliable. Everything besides is like good wind, but you can go against the wind. Soul is free, but attached to samskaras coming from prakrti. Therefore agni purana associates jyotish with aparavidya.

4. Reg career abroad - See karmesh from Chandra. see Lagnesh position - if connected to twelfth/eight then its better to move! Badhakesh and Rahu are also on the list to check.

5. Yes, Ketu with benefic in 12/4 from KK promotes those winds.

6. Moksha is when you are not attached to anything material and the left of karma-phala are burnt in the fire of knowledge. If this stage will not come, forget about moksha.

Rafal Thanks for the replies.

1.Regarding job & self work, i forget to mention that in my D-10 chart(kataka lagna with lagnesh moon in 7th house) jupiter and saturn occupy 5th house. Ketu in 6th house of dhanus (exalted?). So, 6th & 7th lords in 5th house aspect 7th house by rasi drishti...If graha drishti is also considered, then Mars from Libra also aspects 7th house.

My D1 10th lord is Jupiter and Sa is Amk.Mars, which is AK & 10th lord occupy 4th house with Mercury which is BK.

Venus is in 2nd house of simha and Sun occupies 9th hosue of pisces.

So would you say that there is any possibility of self work in these positions? IS the combination of Ju & Sa in 5th house of Vrischika rasi good?

I forgot to mention that in the Nadi astrology that i consulted years back, its given that i would do some self work from my 40th year or so...

2. In my D1 chart, 10th from moon is virgo and lord Me is with Sa in 11th house of Aries. Sa is 8th & 9th lord, and it also aspects Venus in lagna. So, since lagnesh is with 8th lord, does it indicate better work life abroad?

3. As you mentioned, i did feel that predicting moksha is not easy and most of the combinations thats mentioned, are generic in nature to be precise. May be the supreme wants to keep something hiding from us similar to the mystery of 'Death'...

Love, Satheesh

Dear Satheesh,
If you'r sure about birthtime:

a) you can do both. buisness /2001-2011/ you will prefer more, but the circumstances will make you more work with jobs. sixth bhava is maraka to 10L-d1, so buisness is more preferable. if from 2001 you were in job then probably you are not karka dasamsa lagna.

b) your ketu and guru have parivartana, so your authority will help you in job prospects. so first you will commit many mistakes in your job front, but then due to your skills you will be rescued. ninth lord with eighth lord in d10 gives unfavourable bosses in life.

c) Staying in home-land is also favourable for you. Compare your Venus, Moon and Ju from i) Lagna ii) Twelfth bhava. From Lagna they are in much better positions.

d) Yes, Moksha cant be read from Natal chart due to simple reason: You have a choice! Prashna, Adhana, Punya chakras are for this.

I have taken the 9th house from the lagna as it is the house of marraige

9th House whose owner is Jupiter (Dharma trikona) is place in the 5th house which is another house of (Dharma Trikona)

As 9th house is the house of marraige and its significator Jupiter is placed in the 5th house the marraige should have occured in the Jupiter MD ie 1988-2004

I am unable to understand further as to how to check AD and PD.

Hi Rafal

1. You are correct in that i have had people (till now) who have not been favourable to me in my career, atleast in my home country. I also did not get to do good work here so far.

It was good when i was working abroad (Moon-Ju period was very good from 2004 - 05).

In my D1 also 10th lord Ju (retrograde & in 5th house) is in kendra position to 8 & 9th lord Sa in 11th house. So from D1 also does it say that i will not have someone positive towards me in my job?

By the way is the 9th & 10th lords mutually aspecting, Dharma Karmathipathi Yoga?

And, i have also had breaks in my career mostly due to errors I committed myself (you are also right in that i made mistakes on my career front!like, at the beginning of chandra dasa in 2001). Since 2002, it has been ok (again as you said, i came back due to my skills & by Grace of God), but i was never in a situation where I can work on my own...

Now, I am planning to go abroad and work on contract roles/positions (which is a kind of combination of service job & self work) for around 2 years.

The dashamsha chart(my birth details: DoB 23 May 1970, Time: 07:40 am, Latitude:10o47'N Longitude:78o41'E, +5:30 GMT) shows my lagna there as karka.

Can we say that lagna is incorrect, since some of our life events dont match with the way it should be, as per the positions of planets?

2. Normally how do we compare the Navamsa with D1 chart? I mean say, if i have a much better navamsa compared to rasi chart, then will it have better effect after around 40 years of my life, or it will be as per the D1 chart only?

I presume my navamsa is better than rasi (think 3 planets are exalted) but still so far in my life i did not think they have played any kind of role.

3. Is punya chart same as D-60 chart? What combinations / houses do we check in this chart regarding moksha / enlightenment?

Dear Uma, Satheesh,

Uma

Marriage Ve-Sa-Me. Ve is aspecting 7H, Sa is 7L from Lagna and Venus. Me is in kona to 7H and Venus in D9.

Mahadasa: Ve, Me, Ju, Sa. These are capable to give marriage. The first one after 18 is Venus.

Antardasa: Sa, Ju, Su are in kona to 7L in D9. Sa is 7L from Lg/Ve in Rasi. Sa sits in third from PP.

Pratyantardasa: Ke, Ve, Me are in kona to 7H [d9]. In D1 Me has unobstructed argala on 7H, 7L, Ve, UL, lord of UL.

In Navamsa you should use seventh house as place to analyze the [first] marriage. Ninth is for relation with superiors like Gurus. Of course you should also use Utpanna star for Vimshottari, not the Chandra star.

Dear Satheesh,

Sa is too weak to promiss Dharmakarmadhipati yoga; In Mercury antardasas you will feel defeated in your career pursuits, but only in beginning due to the navamsa exaltation of Shani. But you can earn a lot due to dhana yoga in 1/7 in Rasi.

Navamsa is for whole life and its more important than Rasi when we analyze success in life.

Punya chart is death chart. Shastyamsa is for the past life karma.

Dear Rafal

You are right.

Actually right now, I am running Moon - Mercury dasa, and i have not been on a project for the past 10 months or so:)

I read that 8th lord debilitated, and if it aspects lagna, then it turns out to be a raja yoga karaka.

In my chart, Sa is in aries(11th house) aspecting venus/lagna by its 3rd house aspect.

1. So, in what way it will impact as a yoga karaka?

I very much love animals(especially dogs & cows) & feeding them. With humans i use some discretion as we can always get exploited, still i love feeding poor people, or doing annadana during important spiritual occasions...

2. Is it coz of this debilitated sani or venus in lagna if not the Dharma karma yoga?

3. Is there a Ju-Moon yoga in navamsa, as they are in 1/7 position? But Sa aspects moon by rasi drishti, will it damage / modify that?

4. If navamsa is better than rasi chart, will it give its results as if we have a good rasi chart, or it will take some time to give its fruits?

5. So Punya chart is not D-60 is it? How do we see that? what parameters we study from that?

Love, Satheesh

Very confusing unable to understand. I have read somewhere that 9th bhava stands for marriage and spouse, but as your comments you are asking me to check the 7th bhava.

Regarding MD/AD/PD is there any specific pattern of the planets which starts working. Does Trines/Quadrants play a very important role in deciding whether it should be marriage or career change.

Kindly help me in understanding this subject...

Dear Uma,
What is the confusion?

Ninth is related to marriage, because it reflects one's dharma (Bhagavad Gita), so malefics in ninth [d1] delays marriage and we prescribe gems (ratna) in those cases. But the direct bhava related to marriage is seventh - both in Rasi and Navamsa. That's very clear from Brhat Parasara Hora Shastra and other classics.

Planets in kona to AL/A10 confer career events in Antardasa level, those in A7 promotes business, those in kona to Upapada indicate marriage. But that's very general and you should check the Varga to be sure.

For example if Mars is the current Mahadasa planet, check in which Varga Mars is lordship or aspecting Lagnesh - this Varga [divisional chart] will be very important in that period.

Is that clear now?

Dear Shashank,

1. Lagnesh and 8L associated with debilitated planet can weaken the longevity. This is also in 12 from Karaka Lagna which shows some kind of bondage. As Me and Lagnesh are in 12 from AK-Mars this also shows problems related to intelligence. It's advisable to worship Mahakala jyotirlinga. So yuti with Shani causes Rajabhanga yoga, not the Rajayoga. Mo in Vrsabha Navamsa indicates love for cows, this also shows Sri Krishna as your Dharma-Deva.

2. D9 will give results from birth.

 1. how to judge at what extent the soul has reached its journey, say it has travelled lot from one birth to another, as malefic planet as AK shows more spiritual than benefic, why is like this?
 2. why a person is attracted towards a particular deity/god/sadhu & starts worshipping it without knowing why is he doing so? does it has links from last births? on other side he is completely unknown to his ishata, dharma, palana devata, which could find out only from chart. & told to him.

 Dear Shashank,
 1. If malefics are teaching you to come close to God, then where are the shadripus to block? That's the idea.
 2. See stronger between Sun and Moon, then see the same planet in D3 [jn]. The dispositor of the planet will indicate the loka from which you came here to Bhuloka. Chandra Upapada will indicate where you will go after death. If the Surya has argala on LL/AK then soul is spiritually ignited. What he will do about it socially is seen from Arudhapada, whilst the mood one will offer to society is indicated by the Chandra Lagna. Soul's desires are seen by comparing Rasi and Navamsa Lagna. From this you can start analyzing..
 3. God in real essence is free/above all colours (gunas). But because you gained the body, you must approach the God in your specific way which will appeal to your emotions and outlook on spirituality [5h/isthadeva].

Kindly clarify my points regarding the argala and virodhargala

I my d-10 chart I am checking 2,6,10 bhavas which are related to career

This is from dasamsa lagna which is owned by Jupiter and lorded by Sun
The 2nd is owned by saturn and lorded by ketu
The 6th is owned by Venus and lorded by Saturn
The 10th is owned by Mercury and lorded by Venus

In the trines I have Sun/Moon/Venus

Ketu has argala on Venus which is in 10th house and Viordhargala on Saturb which is in 6th house. Ketu has graha drishti on its own and the house owned by Jupiter

Saturn has argala on 10th house which is lorded by Venus and owned by Mercury and Virodhargala on 5th house from reverse which is lorded by Ketu and owned by Jupiter and also having virodhargala on Ra/Ju 8th house from Lagna

Finally

Venus has got argala on Ma(11th House), Sun(1st house, Ketu (2nd House) and Ra/Ju (8th House) and Virodhargala on Saturn which is 6th house what does the above situation mean

One query on debilitation...

I read that if 8th lord debilitated (chapter 41 of Sage Parashara's Brihat Parashara Hora Shastra), and if it aspects lagna, then it turns out to be a raja yoga karaka.

In my rasi chart, Sa is in aries(11th house) aspecting lagna by its 3rd house aspect. Also the lord of the sign of exaltation of Saturn, venus is in lagna / kendra from moon.

So, in any way will it become better?

Also, I have ketu in 10th house in Leo navamsa (Ju in Vrischika lagna). How will that relate to my career?

In Rasi, 10th lord Ju(R) is in 5th house.

 Dear Uma, Satheesh,
 Satheesh,
 If 8L is weak then it hits the longevity, but the opposition is also weakened. .this is good or bad depending if Lagnesh is in 2,3,4,12,11,10 from 8L; if yes then its good.

If Ju is in 1/10 in D9, then person is succesful in Vedanga, teaching, consultations, law etc.

Uma,
 So using argala you can judge the effects of Dasa. If Dasa planet has argala on 6L/H then the circumstances will be guiding towards job. Argala on 4 from Surya and 10 from Moon is always auspicious both in D1 and D10 [reg. work].

If D10 is rectified then see which of these planets in arthakona is strong or in fiery/watery sign. Then see planets in 1/10 in D9 and artha kona in D3; the common planet will give the biggest success. Also judge rajayoga from D10 - see AmK, GL and kendra/kona connections. See how this yoga is placed from Lagnesh and D1-10L in D10 - that will show if you will feel comfortable and how this will affect your stability/protection respectively. Planets in 2/8 from D1-10L show jobs which are not advisable. Parivartana planets show jobs which are not stable; if Lagnesh meets the ninth bhava or seventh is wellplaced then think about independent job.

Rafal Gendarz

Dear Rafal

Thanks. So i see that my debilitated 8th lord is with lagnesh which is not good...(Lagnesh is NOT in 2,3,4,12,11,10 from 8L; its conjunct, yet aspected by retrograde jupiter).

1. The 8th lord & lagnesh are exalted in D-9, does that makes things better for longevity?

2. Is the retrograde jupiter, a good thing to be in 5th house? what are its attributes in general? I read that a retrograde planet also should be considered from one house before where its placed. Is that right?

3. One basic doubt.

My navamsa lagna is vrischika with Ju in lagna, as given in my natal horoscope, cast by astrologers many years back.

Now, when i check for my chart in the websites, it gives me Thula as my navamsa lagna...Why this error? One of these two must be wrong, is it not?

Dear Satheesh,

Use Jhora and rectify your navamsa according to your abilities and time of ailments. If Guru sits in Lagna then person loves Puranas, Vedas, have good grammar abilities, its interested in Jyotish and very moral and full of ballance.

No, Guru still sits in fifth. Its very good, it gives very giving and inteligent (good viveka) personality. Although some ideas will be quite unconventional.

Shani and Budha exaltation in Navamsa change the situation with longevity. Its in third from AL, so first you will start loosing and then Vishnu will help and you will win. Quite lucky.

Dear Rafal

Thanks for the comments. I will try to use Jhora and check with that.

With the birth time of 07.42am, the lagna in navamsa changes to vrischika (i tried this in some web sites like astrogyan.com) but with 07.40am as given in my horoscope casted by astrologers, its libra navamsa...

You are correct. In fact during my birth, it seems i had some problem with breathing, and i was in incubator for some time...

I also had some asthma / wheezing problems until my 10th year or so, but it stopped altogether after that age.

I was good at sports during my school days, and am fair by complexion. Also, I am a good cook (since i first experimented with cooking, around 1995).

I have read the puranas etc earlier, but now I have lost my interest in scriptures / vedas, but practising to 'turn my attention within'.

So, if possible to deduct, do these things point to Mars sign or venus sign (Vrischika or Libra) for navamsa lagna?

 Check with timings, 4L (and other moksha trikona) for ailments, 10L (and arthakona) for career events, 7L for relationships.

Ashish

Deva Amsa is subha-amsa and its very auspicious giving moral and religious approach. This will be the theme for the atmayoga in Rasi.

Is Rasi Lagna Makara? The marriage will be crucial for this person, but this will be properly set only when the person will be skilled and careerwise succesful, otherwise the Shukra will be drowned in debilitation and will take away the bhagya/fortune from the person.

Dear Rafalji,

Thanks for clarifying the amsa part in D-60, what is atmayoga in Rasi ?

Yes the Rasi Lagna is Makar in 9 deg 47 '.

Need to understand this statement bit more – “The marriage will be crucial for this person, but this will be properly set only when the person will be skilled and careerwise succesful, otherwise the Shukra will be drowned in debilitation and will take away the bhagya/fortune from the person.”

Rafalji, That means marriage shouldn't be conducted till he is successful career wise ?

Is Shukra not forming Neecha Bhanga Raja Yoga due to Jupiter + Mercury in Kendra from Moon + Lagna, Jupiter alone can give neecha bhanga raja yoga as its in strong kendra, its also forming partial Laxmi Yoga i guess ?

Only thing I am not sure if Shukra is in combustion or not, If we take Sanjay Rath's principle, then Shukra is not in combustion.

How is Rahu in 2nd house with Gulika + Mandi ? any effects on speech, food habits etc ?

Dear Rafal

Thanks for the info.

By the way, the navamsa lagna will change to scorpio if the birth time is 7.42am instead of libra with time as 7.40, as per Lahiri ayanamsha.

Its scorpio lagna with raman ayanamsha even with 7.40.

1. The retrograde Ju if in scorpio lagna, will it show the same attributes as for Ju in lagna (which you've given in earlier post)? What are the effects of Sa in Libra lagna?

2. What are the effects of exalted Moon in 7th house / 8th house (with scorpio lagna or libra lagna)?

I follow the spiritual practice of vichara / Self enquiry and i think this has a lot to do with the position of moon... So what position of moon would reflect this kind of practice?

3. I had a break in career between 2001 - 2002 (almost 2 years, which is during moon dasa - moon bhukthi). My surya dasa wasn't bad.

So, if i take scorpio lagna, then 10th lord will be in 5th house (sun) and i've had a reasonably better surya dasa.

With libra lagna, 10th lord moon is in 8th house, and i had the break in my career during moon dasa bhukthi.

So which of these two would point to this bad phase of career?

4. otherwise, my short interest in learning mridangam (sun in 5th house with scorpio lagna), interest in watching bruce lee/martial arts movies while i was young (lagna lard is mars), being a good cook & good interest in having nice food (lagna lard is mars), practicing non violence etc points to scorpio lagna.

5. I have a few close friends but otherwise i remain alone in my work place and not much inclined to move in groups. This can be indicated by Sa in lagna as well as 12th house right?

6 With either of these lagna positions, mercury would be in 11th or 12th position. what would be the effect of (exalted) 11th lord in 11th house or 12th lord in 12th house?

i. Yoga including Atmakaraka.

ii. Tenth bhava shows skills so peron should be involved in career pursuits to lift up Venus in chart.

iii. Rahu in second can afflict the way of speaking, especially in watery signs.

Gulika and Mandi can show tamasic influence in way of speaking. Check also second from Budha for this.

Satheesh

i. Use chitrapaksha or vishnunabi ayanamsa. Exalted graha in Navamsa Lagna gives success in life related to karaka of graha. Shani gives following the work of parents and nervous attitude (like in assemblies), besides it also promotes traditional and serious approach.

ii. Moon in seventh gives strong libido, fair complexion of partner. In eighth its very auspicious for general health fortune. Was that job-break connected to health or foreign issues? that would be strong point to consider.

iii. Budha in eleventh gives artistic talent, while in twelfth gives interest in Vedic philosophy and stories (lilas).

K.Seshagiri

Consider starting some remedies in your life.

Nope, the first child can use the direct planet, and the seventh can use the energy of planet connected ie.yuti/aspect etc.

 My date of birth is 22 July 1956, Cuttack, Orissa, India. Could you tell me if a second marriage is indicated, and if so, to what type of person (Indian or western, and in which profession)? I am at the crossroads and would greatly benefit from your insights and advice.

 Also, could you let me know about my career and financial prospects from now onwards? There is something I am doing now – I'd like it to stabilize.

 I have vargottama lagna and moon in my horoscope? What does this indicate?

Pranaam Rafalji,

I am learning Jyotish from SJC yahoo groups, Gururu's, Vistiji's & your websites. You have guided me before also. Right now, my husband is goin thru a very difficult time in his career.

I made a prasna chart on the 19th of Nov, 2008, time was 14:11:10, at 0 W0' 06", 51 N 23' 00" day is wednesday, Ashlesha Nakshatra. Pisces lagna in Rasi and Virgo in D-9... his natal lagna is Pisces.

The badhakesh mercury is in the 9th house Scorpio with 6th lord Sun and 9th lord Mars. In the tenth house of career Venus sits with lagna & tenth lord Jupiter. Ketu with Moon in the fifth house of Cancer.

He is already doing Shakti Ganesha mantra as Vistiji advised him about one and a half yrs ago in a reading. Also he wears a Pukhraj in his right hand ring finger. Birth details- 26/04/74, 3:58:29, 79 E 27, 26N 36.

He has problems with his boss and he is the sole earner. His boss has pounced upon a small mistake and has managed to make a big issue leading to disciplinary action. As per his prasna chart showed a Drishti badhaka and its association with the ninth lord who is also the 2nd lord.

But he does not know his Kula devata. I am not sure of his Vimsamsa chart due to timing. I checked the Prasna chart had a Kalasarpa/Kalamrita yoga broken by the Moon. So I told him to continue with the Shakti Ganesha. In his natal chart and this Prasna Moon is his AK..

My doubts are..

1. what does the AK Moon show in the Prasna?
2. What can be done to counteract the evil combo in the 9th house? I told him do Mrityunjay Japa, as we dont have any temples nearby, is it enough?
3. What is the role of the AL in the prasna?
4. Finally, is there any hope for the job?

PLEASE HELP!!!

Dear Member

Per Prasna marga author Hari Hara we know that we can use all parameters from natal in Prashna. Ak will show important activity which controls the prashna. Usually Surya or Guru worship is taken as remedy for ninth bhava issues, you can also refer to reciting beeja AIM. Arudha lagna has many different roles, but always it shows the questions and motive of client.

Respected Rafal ji Namaskar,

You always imphasize on one mantra to rectify all doshas in chart like...all sins/curses /bandhan yogas/and all negative yogas....

Kindly please advice that mantra and its recitation.

2-"Om Namō naryan"- Can this mantra "Nector" can remove all the doshas in one chart, specificaly..where -AK is Venus and AMT is -mercury...both are meliefic and relates to _Lord Vishnu...

Dear Pradeep
Om Namo Narayanaya heals the yoga in tenth bhava and work is usually more smooth after this kind of sadhana. I am not sure if it can remove all doshas. .depends on particular example.

Thankyou.

Mo-Me-Ve shows best jobs. Mo-Ve is yoga for chemicals. Me-Ve for artism, Mo in Libraamsa gives skill in buisness, managment, accounting, working at public places adds to this. Debilitated planet in 11 from AL gives money, lord is in 12H which shows investments and confirms working with short jobs, contracts, managment, accounting, IT. It will tempt you for stock market, Moon in third gives good cook. Mo in 7 from Al makes one famous.

Dear Surabhi
Your birthhour seems inaccurate, it lacks of minutes.

If we take Simha lagna, then Lagnesh in fifth in Dhanus gives lot of intelligence, and with 3L in fifth it provides Chakra Yoga which enables one to have executive power. More to this it has Raja Yoga formed by Ak+Pk in fifth and dhimanth yoga. This all being in fifth gives lot of influence in middle part of life. However Shukra being involved makes this much earlier like just now, due to Shukra Mahadasa in Naisargika scheme.

This will be more visible when Arudha Lagna will shift to Libra with Shani exalted, you will become more conservative, hardworking, interested in tradition, then rajayoga will came due to argala on New-Arudha.

Current dasa Sc-Ta can bring stressful periods due to work. End of 2008 till 2009 June can bring new jobs and changes as lord of tenth sits in fifth bhava.

Curse of Shukra involving Lagnesh and AK should be remedied by getting initiation in Kamala sadhana. 2009 to 2010 June should be quite better in comparison due to Guru antardasa in Moola and Guru being the karaka for the fifth. Also in 2010 (first half especially) it will improve due to drsti of Guru on Cancer dasa rasi. 2002 to 2006 should be much worst. Especially 2005 brought some issues with people/relation.

4L in parivartana with 5L gives person who sacrifices for the society/group/mission.

Rafal Gendarz

Dear Pradeep
Chaturdasi shows Shiva anger due to fact that Moon was cheating Guru, Shiva protects all Gurus and is embodiment of knowledge. Chandra came to Brihaspati on this tithi, therefore its cursed. Normally we do Narak Chaturdasa Puja. In this chart Shukra is in eleventh with 5L, this will bring relationship issues (bahustreeyoga in 2H from UL) troubles from enmity, problems with new jobs, financial issues and friendship misunderstandings.

Ask the priest to conduct that kind of puja, details are in Parasara.

Dear Member

Its true that authors of classics gives contradictory explanation related to vakri avastha of planet.

Tradition becomes here quite helpful. Planet doesnt give initial results, this becomes source of frustration, when the native excel three times more effort to catch the fruit and eat it. Chesta bala becomes strong, therefore its said that these planets in asthakavarga can give three times more results like one vakri graha can give three children/partners etc. When lagnesh native is very stubborn (especialy in sthira rasi), driven by the feeling of negation but strives more and more. Planets aspected by vakri grahas are very influenced by its.

There is more about position from AL, dusthana placement etc. Usually malefics vakri in kendra gives lot of havoc, but aspect on own sign is always good.

Rafal ji,

You have said Ketu placement is important in determining spiritual progress or intentions. I am intrigued by my Ketu placement in 9H (Leo lagna) - do we consider this as auspicious or a malefic placement?

I have seen one of the replies you have given here:

“Moksha karaka is Ketu. You can see argala on Ketu (in reverse) to see what is helping You in spirituality. If there is planet in fifth from Ketu then it means that going to church and following rules is more important. When there is planet in ninth from Ketu (fifth in reverse) then it means that personal emotion towards God is more helpful.”

Can you please elaborate on this?

I have Mercury (AK) in Lagna which is 5H from Ketu. And it is hemmed in between Sa (12H) and Su (2H). I think this is correct for me - I did “feel” His presence very strongly in my life.

Regards,
Satya
