Dear Rajat ,

Date: April 17, 1976

Time: 4:29:40

Time Zone: 5:30:00 (East of GMT)

Place: 82 E 35' 00", 25 N 09' 00"

Mirzapur, India

Sc-Li Sudasa. Sc aspects 7L, Li Lord is in Lagna as Venus.

Vimshottari: Me-Ma-Ra. In D9 few seconds earlier you have Virgo Lagna. In d1 its quite easy, all the planets influence lord of UL. Find out if partner is more like Ma-Ra or Ju/Sa.

ND: Sc-Li. In DPC of SC Mahadasa Lagnesh is in seventh as Tithesh!. Sc is aspected by Ketu, Li lord is in Lagna. Anubhava falls in seventh bhava.

Naisargika Dasa: Shukra-Shukra. Asp 7H in D1.

Naisargika Bhava dasa:

a) dasa must be in kona/12H from Upapada.

b) Gemini is stronger than Dhanus, Dasa was in Libra to Gemini (8H) - early marriage.

Now answers to your questions:

a) Me (mahadasa) doesnt have argala on Lagna, nor Lagnesh, consider Virgo lagna then for Navamsa.

b) Ma (antardasa) is with UL lord in D1. Its in third from Pranapada, and has virodhargala on 7L for Virgo Lagna in D9

c) PD Rahu is in kona to Shukra, whilst yuti planet is 9L from Meena (7H).

For Guru gochara it should be rasi drsti and its more like auspicious time.

For timing use 7L. It aspects D9-7L and 7L-D1 in Navamsa.

Sun should be in kona to A7, here A7 is with deb Moon which may make the Arudha jump to Taurus which is in kona to Capricorn (sign of Surya in time of marriage).

Per classics these are the nakshatras favourable for marriage:

Sthira Nakshatras, Mrgasira, Revati, Anuradha, Moola, Swati, Magha, Hasta.

Respected Guruji,

Pranam,

I tried to time the marriage of this native. Please advise me whether i have get it done rite or something more needs to be looked.

The native got married on 11th February 1997. The vimsottari dasa at tht time was Merc - Mars - Rahu.

(1) The vimsottari dasa planet should associate with the navamsa lagna, or have argala on it or remove malefic argala on it. Here Venus is the navamsa lagna lord and Mercury has argala on it. Hence it qualifies to give marriage to the native.

(2) The vimsottari antar dasa planet should associate with the seventh lord from the navamsa lagna, or have argala on it or remove malefic argala on it. The seventh house from Navamsa lagna is Aries and its lord is mars. Mars is in 7th house itself and is the 7th lord also. Hence it also qualifies to give marriage to the native.

(3) The Vimsottari pratyantar dasa planet should be in trines to the 7th house, or its lord or Venus. Here Rahu is in 7th house itself. Hence its in trines to the 7th house. Thus this condition also gets fulfilled.

TRANSITS

The transit has been taken of the period 11th February 1997 at 22:00 hours.

(1) The transit of Jupiter should have some contact with the second house from Upapada by rashi drishti atleast. Here Jupiter is transiting in Capricorn and UL is in Gemini. Jupiter is aspecting the 2nd house from UL by graha drishti. Thats why the year was 1997.

(2) The transit of Sun could be in trines to the Rasi or navamsa of the seventh lord. The seventh lord in Rasi is Mercury and is in Virgo navamsa. The Sun was also in virgo navamsa at the time of marriage.

The Moon in transit was in Revati nakshatra. Please guide me whether the marriage to be done in Revati nakshatra is advisable or not? Also in which nakshatras of the Moon transit, marriage is advisable and in which nakshatras not?

Is there any other thing to noticed in timing the marriage apart from these?

Rgds,

Rajat

Rafalji namaskar,

I got married on june 26th 1996,my navamsa lagna is simha.Rahu is the co-lord of the 7th house in navamsa but the navamsa lagna changes in 8 seconds and if we take kanya lagna then rahu is in 7th house.since i got married in shukra-rahu is my lagna simha or kanya? I am confused.

Dear Rafal ,

I'm not married yet and in my chart Saturn aspects UL by RD and is AL Lord. Also Ju is my UL lord and aspects AL by RD, now which among these two will prevail to get me married or not. Sa is also 2nd lord from UL, 7th from Venus and to make things worse its retrograde. My Dasa lord(Utpanna) Ra doesn't have any unobstructed argala on Mercury(my D9 Lagnesh, the time of birth being corrected by Visti & Sanjay). The only thing which is ok is that my AD planet Ve is exalted 7th from Navamsa lagna. Current transits include Ju & Ra 2nd from UL and Sa aspecting this house by RD.

What do you say about marriage

Dear Members ,

Rakesh

For Sun in 10H you should be involved with Mercury jobs, like writing, IT, language, telephones, communication, software.

For Mars in 10H you should be involved with Shukra jobs like consulting, managment, PR, dealing with people, arts, travels etc. For Leo its also possible due to Shukra in Lagna.

With Ke in Lagna person is born with foreceps and its good with math, here its weak so can add to shorttemperedness, person who likes to work at night and is pioneer, likes to break old rules and invent new ones. With Shukra in Lagna person can be born in wealthy family due to DK has finer taste in easthetics, interested in art and have skills in the same, eye for details and attached to clothes, perfumes etc.

Kanya Lagna would also favour skills related to grahas in Makara Rasi, there we have Mo+Me which gives doctor, whilst Mo+Ju gives author, Me+Ju gives good student.

These in sixth can give some kind of quarrels with mother, colleagues, relatives, teachers.

With Kanya Lagna person is interested in wealth and family, for Simha fame, intelligence, health.

Rahu in eighth in its dasa can give problems with health issues in D9. Rahu will give results of Guru.

So if Rahu would be in 8 and Jupiter in sixth its hard to predict time of marriage, or it shows terrible circumstance in that time and not much stability in married life. For Kanya Lagna its of higher chance as Rahu has parakrama argala on seventh lord (providing its first serious marriage).

In D1 Rahu has stronger virodhargala on Upapada and its lord, whilst Shukra is protecting Upapada by lording it. The first serious partner should be quite wealthy and interested in fine arts, being very delicate and concious being, and can be eldest or youngest.

In DPC we see Lagnesh in seventh aspected by Tithes by Rasi drsti. Libra Mahadasa, lord in seventh.

Please read carefully various propositions about Lagna in D9 and let me know if you have any conclusion from it.

Dear Members ,
Pavan

Your estimations about most of the points are correct. Good analysis.

Ju aspecting AL shows you would like to be married and therefore it promotes marriage in life. Also both UL and 2L from UL in Navamsa are quite strong (however Ju suffers from Tatva dosha in chart) giving this possibility but vakri states shows some initial delays or unconventional marriage or marriage circumstance.

Your both 7L in Kendra shows much support is there for marriage, but Surely Me/Sa in vakri state makes meeting serious partner very serious task. Normally Tripura sadhana should be given. There is also curse of Budha with more than 2 malefics pointing out towards Devi sadhana as the only escape from that yoga and particularly Tripura sadhana again, resolving the issue of sarpayoga too!

Normally if Shukra is in seventh in D9 it confers marriage till 32 age. There are however strong delaying factors in the chart which I have mentioned above. I would add also seventh lord and lord of Upapada in Marana Karaka Sthana from Atmakaraka which is high level dosha related to delay.

Currently you are running Lagna dasa in Naisargika dasa. Narayana dasa DPC favours more after 2014. 2013-2017 is also favoured by Naisargika dasa in Jupiter period.

I think you could be engaged faster by Tripura blessings as current Shukra Mahadasa is favouring but so many doshas are blocking its beneficence.

Me/Sa parivartana gives strong rajayoga, both Sa in 9 from AL and Me in 2H from AL are good positions. Me influence on Lagna is blocked by bandhana yoga, but Sa will be free and will act in middle age. Sa dasa is in period of 2030/2049.

Ma/Ju/Ra gives person who works with government, banks, law. It influence both AL and 11 from AL. Shani influence in D9 could make you involved in some physical work or reparations, cold articles.

Hope it helps.

Rafalji Namaskar,

Thank you so much. there are some positive points for leo lagna- interested in easthetics and fine arts, attached to clothes, perfumes as shukra is in lagna but i do not come from a wealthy family. quarrels with mother, colleagues, relatives and teachers with moon, mercury and jupiter in 6th house.

Negative points for kanya lagna- was born in the house so forceps was unlikely but i am not sure, not good in maths though a little short-tempered.

profession wise i am in the army. relationships-my first serious relationship was in '87- ketu-shani/budha period. failed in exams and moved back to home town. relationship was long distance from then on and broke off in '94. girl was the 2nd of three siblings, was not from a wealthy family but was studying to be a doctor. met my wife in '93 is from a wealthy family and the youngest, there were many issues at time of marriage and marriage has been unstable through out.

Sir please can you elaborate what DPC means and what you meant by "delicate and concious being"?

Dear Rakesh

DPC is Dasa pravesha chakra. Chart drawn at the beginning of Dasa. Delicate means features and emotional. Concious means highly aware.

Reg rectification. See planets in kona to Navamsa Lagna and look if they match your abilities, then check planets in 1/10 and see if they are matching your profession.

Rafalji namaskar,

what does the results of the DPC mean?-lagnesh in 7th house aspected by thithes by rasi drishti. Libra mahadasha, lord in 7th.

for kanya lagna kuja in 10th aptly fits my profession and with leo lagna sun in 10th indicates public service which is also right. if the lagna is in the cusp of two signs like mine is it possible it will have the characteristics of both signs? Rafalji can you tell me by prasna which one of the two lagnas could it possibly be?

Respected Rafalji,

I am new member of rohinaa.com and a keen learner of astrology. Sir, I am facing problem in getting married.

My birth details : 27th October, 1979 ; Time : 7:10am; Longitude : 077:53East (77E53) and latitude : 029:52 North (29N52).

I am libra ascendant and I'm undergoing my second UL, which is in leo (Guru, shani and rahu in leo) with its lord sun debilitated in libra with venus. My observation is:-

1) According to the aspect of jupiter transit on my 2nd house to UL i.e. virgo, I am supposed to get married this year.

2) My 2UL in friendship house with Guru, shani and Rahu posited there, so does that mean I will get married to some friend or known. Since my 2UL leo under the nodes and my arudh pad is 12th from 2UL, it indicates difficult relationship and also causing problem in getting married.

3) My spouse will be from good family as 2UL lord is placed in first house with venus in libra causing neecha bhanga yog and sun is in its karaka sthan.

4) Spouse will be associated with computers and spiritual (rahu, ketu) and highly educated or MBA (guru)

5) For libra asc. sun is badhakesh and my 2UL in badhaksthan so is it causing problem?

Also 12th to 2UL is my arudh with mars posited there with digbal, is it causing problem?

6) I am also having problem in getting job, trying in banking sector.

7) I am fasting on sunday and tuesday. Also I'm spiritual and God fearing person 😊

It will be grateful if you could tell me about characteristics (looks, height and his work) of my spouse and marriage life.

This is what I could see in my horoscope and so I need your guidance to tell me where I am going wrong.

Sir, do guru saapa in UL causing delay in marriage or debilitated mars posited in arudh which is 12th from UL causing hurdles in marriage? I think guru transit aspecting my 2nd from 2UL showing marriage this year. I need your guidance and suggestions about my observation. I am fasting on sunday and tuesday.

If the native is undergoing mars mahadasha and got piscean navamsa and mangal being second lord causing dhana argala to navamsa lagna but placed in 12th house with ketu, so does it cause malefic argala on navamsa lagna and causes problem in marriage timing as according to the rule of vimsottari dasa. Please guide, i need to understand argala concept in timing of marriage.

Dear Members

PGupta

Virodha argala can give marriage but only if there is planet in the second bhava for your example. Otherwise I would say that its low chance to be married in that Mahadasha. In tradition we are taught to use Naisargika dasa for events like Vivaha.

Rakesh

Lagnesh in seventh aspected by rasi drishti of Tithesh is enough to allow marriage to happen. But this is for announcement of Mahadasha chart called DPC.

Please do urgent research about my recovery of 3 room full of things and remarriage to virgin chaste girl with sons and no separation or divorce in future as I am in tears and my adamant ex-wife does not want to give back any thing including my certificates back for the past 5 and half years

e-mail:daniel.elan@yahoo.com

To astrologer,

I Elan Daniel is anxiously waiting for the results of my research about my horoscope as I would like to know whether I shall get back my jewellery and 3 room full of things back from my ex-wife who has taken it for 5 years now. My date of birth is 13 feb 1969, 1:30 afternoon at Mumbai, India. I am having Vishdhar Kalsarpa yoga and sharpit yoga along with debilitated Mars in Cancer in Navamsha chart and many retrograde planets along with Mars in 7th house. Please do reply me whether I shall get back my things back and shall I have a virtuous, modest virgin wife with long living sons and permanent happiness, or is there going to be quarrels and divorce again if I go for a second marriage and is there again imprisonment ruled in my horoscope as I was put falsely in jail 5 times .

I am eagerly waiting your reply for 1 month now, please I beg of you to tell my exact future as I am the only child of my old mother who lives in India.

MY DATE OF BIRTH :13 FEB 1969, TIME OF BIRTH:1:30 AFTERNOON PM, AT MUMBAI, BANDRA, INDIA ON THURSDAY.

I AM HAVING VISHDHAR KALSARP YOGA , GURUCHANDALA YOGA AND SHARPIT YOGA AND MARS IS DEBILITED WITH NEPTUNE IN NAVAMSHA CHART AS I AM MANGLIK AND MANY PLANETS WEAK AND DEBILTED ALONG WITH RETROGADE PLANETS.

You have two three independents issues raised in you mail needing clarity further:

1. You are azospermic can not bear children on our own
2. your wife married earlier now went away from you
3. She took all valuables supposed to have been your personal possessions
4. possibilities for re marriage and having good married life.

If the above mentioned issues are of prime concern to you, then clarification are made out initially by casting a prashna lagna. The observations /suggestions are as under:

1. you have problems in your reproductive system as the sign raising is virgo chitta for which mars is the lord of nakshtra posited in along with mars in saturn's kumbha/aquarius. Dispositor of this sign is in 12th in simha. A position that indicates problem in reproductive area. Venus karak for beej/sperm is with sun in 7th along with sun, Venus is in revathi of mercury's nakshtra. This indicates some medical aid can facilitate for having children despite your present condition.

2. your deserted wife and now away from you shall create legal hurdles and also mangals aspect on 7th , no chance for your 2nd marriage sustainability for a long time relationship and having your children.

possibly some lower category of woman may agree to get married with you. But she too will have medical problems and can bear child only after some medical treatment as seen from navamsa due to the aspect of saturn, lord of 7th on 6th house

3. your possessions might be recovered partially as a compromise after long and time taking court hurdles.

On several counts, the problems you are now encountering takes long time for resolution as dasalord jupiter as lord of 7th is posited in 5th in rahu-ketu axis

your's
sincerely,
Elan Daniel

Dear Satish,
Unfortunately we must wait, as the proper calculations and way of analysis for Naisargika dasa as given by classics per my knowledge are only laid down in the course of Jaimini provided by Sanjay Rath ji. I had the luck to get in touch with this method but still it shouldnt make us lazy with the other dasas like Vimshottari & Narayana dasa.

Maybe in future there will come some book or article which will be available for all. Another option would be purchasing Sri Jyoti Star where this calculation will be given.
